ABOUT JAC OF ALL THINGS

Jac of All Things understands that their readers wear many hats. They are mothers, wives, homemakers. They own businesses. They plan trips; they are their own accountants. They are chefs. They are creators. Their time is ever so important and they are required to be "experts" in many things.

Jac of All Things is here to help their readers get the information they need for everyday life so they can focus on the things that matter. In addition to tips for everyday life, Jaclyn shares her family travel stories to encourage readers to make memories together as a family.

ABOUT THE HASTINGS FAMILY

The Hastings Family is always ready for an adventure, whether that be in their backyard or exploring a new destination. Jaclyn (mother) and Drake (father) have raised their daughters to embrace adventure and to rejoice in life's natural beauties.

Kinsley (age 7) loves hiking, indoor rock climbing, indoor sky diving, horseback riding, swimming, and all things rocks. Hadley (age 5) loves animals, hiking, exploring, water, and trying new foods.
